

NATIONAL PASTIME

by Bryan Harnetiaux

12/14/04

Producers: James and Lissa Reynolds
Co-Producer: Daphne Bloomer
Casting: Fran Bascom

Director: James Reynolds

Please send pictures & resumes to:
FREMONT CENTRE THEATRE
1000 FREMONT AVENUE
SOUTH PASADENA, CA 91030

Auditions: January 8 & 9
Rehearsals start: Jan. 29, 2005
Previews: March 17 & 18
Opening: March 19th (plays Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays matinees)

For additional information and directions check:
www.fremontcentretheatre.com

NATIONAL PASTIME is the story of Jackie Robinson.

Please note: Where there is an age range be aware those roles are played by only one actor.

JACKIE ROBINSON - black baseball player; from 6 years to 43 years old.

BRANCH RICKEY - white baseball executive; from early 50's thru 80.

WALTER "RED" BARBER - white radio broadcaster, from the South, late 30's or older.

MALLIE ROBINSON - Jackie's mother; from late 20's to 50's.

CLYDE SUKEFORTH - white baseball coach and scout.

RACHEL (ISUM) ROBINSON - Jackie's girl, and later wife; early to late 20's

JANE RICKEY - Branch's wife; early 50's to early 60's

LYLAH BARBER - Red's wife, also from the South; late 30's

LeROY "SATCHELL" PAIGE - black baseball player; of indeterminate age.

MULE - Negro League ballplayer

HAROLD "PEE WEE" REESE - white Brooklyn Dodgers Captain, from the South, late 20's.

DIXIE WALKER - white baseball player.